2. QUOTATIONS AND ORDERS: Quotations given and orders accepted are subject to the following conditions:

- a) Unless otherwise agreed in writing, quotations given and orders accepted are based on the Supplier's rates and costs as at the date of quotation of materials, transport, labour and other costs. The price may be increased by the amount of any increase in the cost to the Supplier of any such item or any other factors (including any change in exchange rates) affecting the Suppliers cost of supply, production, labour or delivery of the goods.
- b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any alteration in quantity, sizes, specification, complexity of work or delivery may necessitate an adjustment of prices.
- c) No order may be suspended, cancelled or amended without the Supplier's agreement in writing and the Applicant shall accept liability for all costs incurred by the Supplier, including but not restricted to purchases, stocks, work in progress, labour costs or unrecovered overheads consequent upon the suspension, cancellation or amendment of any order agreed to by the Supplier.
- d) Orders are accepted subject to the Supplier's minimum order conditions and manufacturing limitations for various items.

3. DESPATCH & DELIVERY:

- a) Despatch and delivery times shall be agreed in writing between the parties and should no written agreement exist any time given or accepted by the Supplier for despatch or delivery shall be treated only as an estimate in good faith. No contractual obligation as to time or date shall be binding upon the Supplier other than to expect that all despatches and deliveries will be made within a reasonable time.
- b) Where delivery or despatch is to be made by installments, each delivery or despatch shall be deemed for such purpose to be the subject of a separate contract and any delays whatsoever in respect of any particular despatches or deliveries shall not entitle the Applicant to repudiate the order or any installments remaining to be delivered. In the event of the Applicant making default in respect of any installment, the Supplier may elect to treat the default as a breach of contract relating to each other installment.
- c) If for any reason the Applicant is unable to accept delivery of the goods at the time when the goods are due and ready for delivery, the Supplier may either store the goods at its own premises or arrange for suitable outside storage until actual delivery and the Applicant shall be liable to the Supplier for the costs of such storage, including any additional handling insurance and transport costs. This provision shall be in addition to and not in substitution of any other payment of damages for which the Applicant may become liable due to its failure to take delivery at the appropriate date. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Applicant will pay for the goods after 60 days of storage. In addition, the Supplier may, at its' sole discretion, sell the goods in storage to others if the Applicant fails to pay for the goods or fails to pay storage charges when due.
- d) The Supplier reserves the right to apply delivery charges to all deliveries into the Applicant's premises or to site or other locations specified by the Applicant. The Supplier may also apply additional freight charges for deliveries outside capital cities or by alternative means of transport. The Supplier shall be under no obligation to insure goods while in transport.

- e) Risk of any loss damage or deterioration in the goods ordered shall pass to the Applicant as soon as goods are clear of the delivery vehicle or have been loaded on the Applicants vehicle or the Applicants contractor's vehicle.
- f) The Supplier accepts no liability for off-loading the goods from the delivery vehicle and the Applicant shall keep the Supplier indemnified from and against all claims whatever arising from such off-loading.
- g) The Supplier reserves the right to despatch the goods by the most suitable form of transport and to pack the goods in the most suitable manner.
- h) Once an order is placed into production and subsequently cancelled by the Applicant, all freight or other charges will be applied and no credit or claim will be accepted by the Supplier.

4. RETENTION OF TITLE:

- (a) The Supplier retains legal and equitable title in any goods supplied to the Applicant until payment in full for or in connection with the supply of the relevant goods has been received by the Supplier. Until payment in full has been received, the following terms apply.
- (b) Notwithstanding that title in the goods remains with the Supplier until payment has been received in full, the Applicant may sell such goods or use the goods in a manufacturing or construction process in the ordinary course of the Applicant's business. As between the Applicant and the purchaser of any item of the Goods, the Applicant sells as principal and not as agent of the Supplier. The proceeds of sale of each item of Goods must be held by the Applicant in a separate fund on trust for the Supplier and the Applicant is under a duty to account to the Supplier for such proceeds. The creation of, or any failure of, any such trust shall not in any way limit the obligation of the Applicant to pay an amount to the Supplier for Goods supplied.
- (c) Until goods are sold or used in a manufacturing or construction process, the Applicant must keep the goods safe and free from deterioration, destruction, loss or harm, clearly designate the goods as the property of the Supplier, store them in such a way they are clearly identified as the property of the Supplier and keep full and complete records, firstly, of the physical location of the goods and, secondly, the ownership of the goods by the Supplier.
- (d) The Supplier is irrevocably entitled at any time and from time to time before sale of any item of Goods by the Applicant to inspect or to recover and take possession of such goods and otherwise exercise in relation to the goods any of its rights whether those rights are as owner and/or unpaid the Supplier or otherwise and whether those rights are conferred by common law, contract, statute or in any other way. In order to exercise such entitlement, the Supplier and its agents are irrevocably authorised by the Applicant to enter any of the Applicant's premises or vehicles or those of any third party. The Applicant agrees to obtain the consent of any such third party to such entry by the Applicant and to indemnify the Supplier and its agents for any liability arising from any entry upon such third parties' premises or vehicles. The Supplier and its agents agree to take all reasonable care in removing the goods from such premises or vehicles but, to the extent this liability may be disclaimed by law, are not liable for any damage or injury to such premises caused by the removal of the goods.
- (e) This reservation of title and ownership is effective whether or not the goods have been altered from their supplied form, or commingled with other goods.

4A. Security interest

- (a) The retention of title arrangement described in clause 4 constitutes the grant of a purchase money security interest by the Applicant in favour of the Supplier in respect of all present and after-acquired goods supplied to the Applicant by the Supplier.
- (b) The Applicant must immediately, if requested by the Supplier, sign any documents, provide all necessary information and do anything else required by the Supplier to ensure that the Supplier's purchase money security interest is a perfected security interest.
- (c) The Applicant will not enter into any security agreement that permits any other person to have or to register any security interest in respect of the goods or any proceeds from the sale of the goods until the Supplier has perfected its purchase money security interest.
- (d) For any goods supplied that are not goods that are used predominately for personal, domestic or household purposes, the parties agree to contract out of the application of ss 95, 118, 121(4), 130, 132(4), 135, 142 or 143 of the PPSA in relation to the goods.
- (e) The Applicant hereby waives any rights the Applicant may otherwise have to:
  - (i) receive any notices the Applicant would otherwise be entitled to receive under ss 95, 118, 121, 130, 132 or 135
  - (ii) apply to a Court for an order concerning the removal of an accession under section 97
  - (iii) object to a proposal of the Applicant to purchase or retain any collateral under ss 130 and 135

- (iv) receive a copy of a verification statement confirming registration of a financing statement, or a financing change statement, relating to any security interest the Supplier may have in goods supplied to the Applicant from time to time.
- (f) For the purposes of this clause "PPSA" means the Personal Property Securities Act 2009. The expressions "accession", "collateral", "financing statement", "financing change statement", "security agreement", "security interest", "perfected security interest" and "verification statement" have the meanings given to them under, or in the context of the PPSA. References to sections are to sections of the PPSA.

RISK AND TRANSIT LOSS: Goods are at the Applicant's risk from the moment of delivery or collection. If the Applicant establishes to the satisfaction of the Supplier that goods have been lost in transit, or were not handed over by the carrier complete and without shortage, the Supplier will at its discretion, replace the damaged or missing goods free of charge or credit the Applicant with the value of them, provided that the Applicant shall have given to the Supplier written notification (otherwise than on the carrier's delivery document) of such damage, loss or shortage as follows:

- (a) Within seven days of delivery of the consignment in the case of damage, loss or part of the consignment or shortage of goods.
- (b) Within 28 days of the dispatch of the consignment where the whole of the consignment is lost. The Supplier shall be permitted a reasonable opportunity to inspect any damaged consignment in the case of (a) above and to investigate any loss in the case of both (a) above or (b).

To the extent permitted by law, the Supplier shall not be liable for consequential or incidental damage or loss whether in contract or in tort for the loss damage or injury arising from breach of any of the Supplier's obligations, cancellation of the contract or for any negligence on the part of the Supplier. The Supplier's liability in all other respects shall not, to the extent permitted by law, in the aggregate exceed the tax invoice value of the goods.

The written notification to the Supplier under (a) above shall state whether any damaged goods have been salvaged by the Applicant and upon the Supplier replacing or crediting any damage or loss under (a) above any salvaged goods shall be available to and at the disposal of the Supplier. Failure by the Applicant to state whether or not any goods have been salvaged shall relieve the Supplier from all liability or obligation under (a) above.

Except as provided in the foregoing provisions, the Supplier shall not, to the extent permitted by law, be liable to the Applicant for any loss or damage arising out of or in connection with goods damaged or lost in transit.

- 5. SYSTEM PERFORMANCE, CUTTING, HANDLING, STORAGE, INSTALLATION, SAFETY & APPLICATION OF SURFACE COATINGS: The Applicant acknowledges the existence of various guidelines made available by the Supplier dealing with the topics outlined in this heading (including, without limitation, those made available on the Supplier's website). The Applicant indemnifies the Supplier in respect of any non-compliance, or failure to act, by the Applicant (including, without limitation, its' agents and subcontractors) in respect of such guidelines.

- 6. DEFECTIVE GOODS: Without limiting the obligations of the Supplier at law:

- (a) Goods alleged by the Applicant to be defective, if notified in writing to the Supplier within 30 days of receipt by the Applicant, (time being of the essence) and accepted by the Supplier as defective, will at the discretion of the Supplier be replaced free of charge (to the original delivery point) or credited to the account of the Applicant. The Supplier reserves the right to inspect goods prior to determining as above. If the goods are in the custody of the Supplier for investigation or repair they shall be at the risk of the Applicant and no liability shall attach to the Supplier its servants or agents for any damage occasioned to the goods howsoever arising.
- (b) It is the responsibility of the Applicant to inspect the goods as soon as practically possible after delivery. Inspection procedures should have due regard to the nature of the goods and their intended application.
- (c) The Applicant shall not assert any claim for any reason after the goods are used, sold, cut, processed or otherwise altered or if the Applicant is in default of any of the terms for payment stipulated herein.
- (d) In no case shall any claim exceed the invoice value of the goods in respect of which that claim is made. Only one claim may be made with respect to any particular goods and that claim must clearly identify the specific transaction number to which the allegedly defective goods relate.

- 7. SUITABILITY FOR APPLICATIONS: to the extent permitted by law, no condition is made or to be implied; nor is any warranty given or to be implied as to the life or wear of the goods supplied or that they will be suitable for any particular purpose or for use under specific conditions, notwithstanding that such purposes or conditions may be known or made known to the Supplier. Whilst the Supplier manufactures its products in accordance with specific Australian manufacturing standards, which are available on request, it is the Applicant's responsibility to ensure that the goods comply with the requirements of the use of the material. The Supplier reserves the right to sub-contract the production, manufacture or supply of the whole or any part of the goods or any materials or services to be supplied.

8. PAYMENT:

- (a) Payment of goods purchased and services rendered inclusive of freight, handling and other expenses shall be made within 30 days of the date of the statement where upon that transaction appeared.
